PALMER, LOMBARDI & DONOHUE ATTORNEYS
JOHN C. STEELE AND JEFFREY N. GOLDBERG PROMOTED TO PARTNER

LOS ANGELES— Los Angeles-based law firm Palmer, Lombardi & Donohue LLP has announced the election of two new partners, John C. Steele and Jeffrey N. Goldberg.

Mr. Steele is a trial attorney with extensive experience in securities, banking, healthcare, employment, intellectual property, and real property disputes. He represents a variety of clients, including Fortune 500 companies, brokerage firms, healthcare providers, as well as corporate officers and directors. Mr. Steele obtained his J.D. cum laude and his B.A. magna cum laude from Brigham Young University.

Mr. Goldberg is a trial attorney who has handled various litigation matters in state and federal courts, including appeals in both the California Courts of Appeal and the United States Courts of Appeals. Mr. Goldberg also has extensive experience in arbitration proceedings in various forums (including FINRA, AAA, JAMS, and NAF) and related court proceedings. While Mr. Goldberg has a broad range of experience in civil litigation matters, Mr. Goldberg concentrates his practice on securities litigation. Mr. Goldberg earned his J.D. from UCLA School of Law and received his B.A. from Emory University.
